

General Education Online Passes 1 million web hits for 2002

The Internet (2002-06-11)

Today, General Education Online passed 1 million webhits for 2002, putting it on pace to break the 2 million web hit mark this year. Since 1999, GEO has experienced continuous growth well beyond any expectations.

Since January 1999, GEO visitors have downloaded more than 58 GB of information in over 3 million files. GEO's website has received approximately 3.6 million web hits, of which some 855,000 are unique visitors. GEO is regularly visited by high school seniors, companies attempting to verify resumes, and researchers attempting to partner with other educational facilities.
