

Virginia Tech Shootings - Moment of Silence

The Internet (2007-04-16)

Today, in the deadliest school shooting in US history, 33 Virginia Tech students and faculty members were killed, and another 29 wounded. General Education Online (GEO) offers our heartfelt condolences and best wishes to the families, friends, and all others affected by the events at Virginia Tech. In memory of the victims of the violence, GEO (with the exception of our Education Disaster Information System), will suspend official operations tomorrow, April 17, 2007.
